

I find XM Satellite Radio to be the most useful invention since the automobile. It offers access and variety and is not available on any of the public airwaves. Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and allow satellite stations the ability to provide useful, timely information in a way that public stations cannot.